'The Parable of the Five Loaves of Bread' by Vudon Baklytsky (1991)

NAUMAI, HAERE MAI! MALO E LELEI! TALOFA! 欢迎 (HUĀN YÍNG!)

Welcome all who are with us in person or online

Sentence: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven,' says the Lord. 'Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'" John 6: 51

Collect: All-seeing God,
teach us to be open with you about our needs,
to seek your support in our trials,
to admit before you our sins,
and to thank you for all your goodness;
through Jesus Christ our Redeemer.
Amen.

Today's Readings: Ephesians 3: 14-21
John 6: 1-21

Let us pray...

for the following members of our congregation this week:

Prayers this week

E te Ariki, we stretch out our hands to you and you fill them.

E te Atua, Loving God
We pray for our world,
This abundant and generous place of life
Help us to live in your abundance
without taking from others their share;
May your Holy Spirit move leaders across the world- from fear to generosity.
From darkness to light.
O God, we cry out for peace,
in places where there is no peace.

We give thanks for our church;
You sent your beloved Son
That we might know this love
that surpasses knowledge—
that we may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.
May this knowledge
Send us out into your world,
Even with nervous steps,
To share your Gospel;
And to love one another.

We thank you for our communities;
In all their forms.
While we look to you and you give us our
daily bread at the proper time;
may your hands become our hands.
In our neighbourhoods, our schools, our malls, our kitchens, our places of worship;
May we live in community:
May we love, weep, and laugh,
May there be bread enough for all, and some left over.

E te Wairua Tapu, Holy Spirit
Magnify in us those good gifts you gave us
When we emerged from the waters of our baptism;
That we may magnify God
And share Christ's love
With all. Amen.

No 8am Service Sunday, 4 August

There will be no 8am Service next week,
Sunday, 4 August.

We apologise for any disruption to your worship rhythms.

We encourage members of the 8am
Service to join the 10am Service as we celebrate our patron saint, St James.

ST JAMES' DAY 2024

4 AUGUST, 10AM
ST JAMES' CHURCH

with choristers from Chilton St James

Come and join us in celebrating our patron saint!

*This year will be different.....
we will have an extended
morning tea in the church*

Special guests: Rev Julie Rokotakala, Chilton representatives, Seraphim Choir

Extended Morning tea ideas

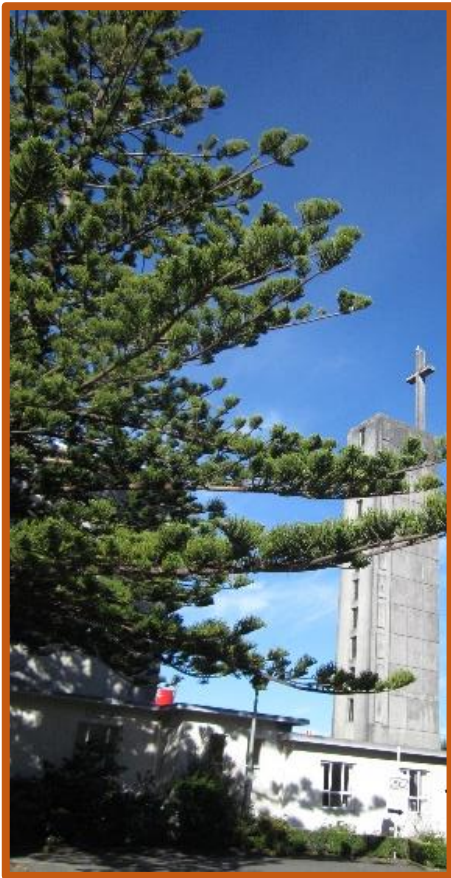

For the extended morning tea on St James' Day, we are encouraging a Mediterranean theme given St James' connection with the Camino de Santiago.

Think 'Spain' and 'sunshine'!

We encourage everyone to bring a plate to share for morning tea. We suggest the following: food with almonds, oranges and lemons in them, antipasto, sandwiches, and finger food.

Avoid bringing food that requires reheating as we will not have heating equipment at St James'.

Hall Redevelopment Fundraisers

Unique Pine Crosses for holding or wearing

Made from the Norfolk Pine that used to grow beside our church!

There are only 24 crosses available now and they are being sold at $20 each.

The proceeds will go towards our new Hall Building Fund. They will be available on the 4th August after the St James Day service at St James.

Payment can be made in cash or online.

Rimu Coffee table

Richard Lamb is offering to make a coffee table if anyone wants one, for an appropriate donation to the Hall Fund.

The size will depend on the measurements of Richard's recycled Rimu, and the feasibility of making it.

If interested, call Richard on 021 026 50453.

Daughters of Invention
Saturday 27 July, 7:00 pm
St Paul's Lutheran, 12 King Street, Mount Cook

For many years, I have been playing the music of J.S. Bach on the keyboard (as you can hear after church from time to time). For years I have been playing traditional Irish in sessions and ceilidhs, on accordion and tin whistle. These concerts are an attempt to combine the two.

On piano, accordion, fiddle, bodhrán, guitar, and tin whistle, friends and I will be playing a set of tunes I have written - jigs, reels, polkas, waltzes - based upon Bach's 15 two-part Inventions, along with the original Inventions. On Wednesday, we performed an abbreviated version as St Mark's Church, but on Saturday you can hear the full set (along with one or two other goodies). A digital download of a recording we have made will also be available for purchase. It would be lovely to see you there.

Archbishops join international condemnation of Al Ahli Hospital Closure

The Archbishops of Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia, last week, joined the international condemnation of the forced closure by the Israeli Defense Force (IDF) of the Al Ahli Arab Hospital in Gaza.

We are now aware that the hospital has reopened.

The swift and widespread outcry about the forced closure was led by the Episcopal Church USA, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, and was joined by a number of Dioceses and Provinces, in the days immediately following the closure.

Three major news outlets in Israel ran the story of the Church's distress at the closure and the Anglican Archbishop in Jerusalem's plea for the hospital's reinstatement and protection.

“In a time of warfare and great suffering, it is essential that emergency healthcare services are maintained to treat the injured and the dying,” said Archbishop Hosam Naoum.

The Anglican-run hospital operates under incredibly challenging conditions.

It forms a core ministry of the Jerusalem-based Anglican province in the Middle East but has struggled with other Gazan health care providers to meet the needs of injured Palestinians under the Israeli military's bombardment of the territory since hostilities began.
